ARNOLD THE BOY WHO CAN SPEAK WITH ANIMALS

Demir Bilek

Arnold is a boy and he is thirteen years old. He is generally alone at school or even at home. He has a little brother called Mike. He is nine years old. Since Mike is the youngest in the house, he always managed to attract attention.

On the contrary, Arnold would prefer to stay on his own because he is bad at communication.

His parents are Mr. Jonathan and Mrs. July.

They recognized Arnold's feelings but they were so busy with Mike.

One night Mike did a joke to his brother.

He hid Arnold's laptop and phone. When Arnold came to his room, because he had a homework, he looked everywhere for his laptop and phone. But he couldn't find them.

Mike went to Arnold's room and said;

Hey brother! What are you searching?

Arnold recognised untrusty and weird tone in his brothers sentence. Arnold understood immediately, that his brother was involved. And said; Mike, what did you do this time? Because they were just two strangers in the house, they were only talking at their fights, or Mike's bad jokes. Arnold was about to be really angry and asked;

Where did you hide my laptop and phone?

Mike smiled because he had a chance to make his brother more angry. Mike ran to living room with his general fake cry DAD! DAD! Mr. Jonathan was sleepy at his couch. He asked to Mike what is going on. Mike said; Arnold lost his phone and laptop and blamed me. Mr Jonathan left his couch with a disappointed face. And went to Arnold's room.

Mr. Jonathan asks, Why are you blaming your brother? Arnold didn't replied because this happens every day and none of his words are not enough to explain. "You are grounded."

He closed the door and went back to his couch. Arnold felt nothing and went to sleep.

It will be so long and deep.

Arnold woke up and checked his watch it was 5:00 AM. It was so early to wake up.

He closed his eyes and tried to fall asleep. But it was impossible because he heard a strange voice, "Hey, hey you there!" Arnold got up and started to search about who was calling him. He looked to the hallway, no one was there. He entered back his room and thought that was a dream. He was slowly walking to his bed and heard the same strange voice. There was a blue tiny bird at his window. Arnold got closer to his window and realised the voice was coming from the bird.

Arnold was about to scream but he remembered the time. And then he thought it was a dream and when he got back to sleep it will end. Bird said; Wait, can you hear me? Arnold talked with a confused tone "Y-Yes?" Wait you were calling me, why?

"Uhm, i was having fun, because humans cant understand what we are saying. They only hear our bird song. Arnold asked " Can only the birds talk. Blue bird replied " No, all the animals can talk. But the weird thing is, it is the first time that a human understands us. We need to find out how did this happen. There is only one who can explain. Arnold replied Where is it, who is it?"

"There is a wise fox in the forest. He knows everything about whats going on. If you have time we can go to him.

Arnold started to change his clothes immediately because he was so curious. He was ready in seconds and walked fastly to the entrance. Bird flyed and landed Arnold's shoulder. They set out together to go to the wise fox, towards to forest. When they entered the forest, the ambience was incredible. There were colorful flowers, trees, kinds of animals and the smell was salty because the forest was near the lake. They walked about fifteen minutes.

There was a wooden shack which is chipped by himself. Blue bird called wise fox as Rogier.

He stuck his head out and asked "What is going on?" Rogier realized Arnold and the blue bird with scared eyes. Blue bird saw the scared eyes of Rogier and started to explain. I was flying near the Arnold's house and he heard my talking. Because it is imposible we came to you understand whats happening. Rogier said "It is extraordinary. I didnt hear anything like this before. We have to find out together.

Arnold, can you describe yourself?

Arnold said; Yes of course. I have a little brother. We are living with our parents. At the end of the forest. Rogier replied "Do you have any friends?" "I have some in the school but we are not so close. I prefer to stay alone so i can stay with my books and myself, Rogier started to understand but he had one more question.

"How is your life in home?"

Arnold replied "It is regular, because all the attention is on my little brother Mike.

"I think I understand the situation. I think that even the nature understood your loneliness. So it gave you a gift. But the main thing is what will you do with it? Arnold replied "I am so happy to hear all of you. So I can learn everything about you and be a friend. So I don't need more friends, Rogier "started to talk.

"We are so happy to be your friends, but you will always need a human being with you as a support to your life. Also your family ~~are~~ worried about you.

Arnold "I don't think so." They are so busy with Mike. Rogier "No family separates a child.

Just because he is younger than you, they try to teach. Blue bird supported the wise

fox. Before the morning comes we have to get back to the house. They thanked to Rogier and started to walk. Arnold asked

"Will you stay with me?"

Blue bird said "I really want to stay with you but if I stay you will not try to talk with your family and friends, you have to talk and find a solution.

When they are closer to the house they saw blue and red lights. Lots of policemen were searching around the house. Arnold was so scared because he thought that his father shout to him. Arnold wanted to go back to the forest but blue bird convinced Arnold to talk with his family.

When Arnold entered from the door Mike saw him and ran to Arnold. He looked so worried. He started to cry and apologized about last night. He brought his phone and laptop back and he promised not to do any joke like that again. His family gave a big hug and they apologized. They gave a promise to listen him.

After this day they became a family and lived happily.
